CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2009—10 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 33

Introduced by Assembly ~~Member Nava~~ Members Nava and Cook

December 1, 2008

~~An act relating to sex offenders.~~ An act to add Section 13519.07 to the Penal Code, relating to missing persons.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 33, as amended, Nava. ~~Sex offenders.~~ Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training: missing children.

Existing law establishes the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training within the Department of Justice. Under existing law, the commission is required to develop and implement training for peace officers relative to certain areas of criminal law or procedure. Existing law requires the commission to implement a course or courses of instruction for the training of law enforcement officers and law enforcement dispatchers in the handling of missing person and runaway cases and to develop guidelines for law enforcement response to missing person and runaway cases.

This bill would require the commission to develop uniform, minimum guidelines, and to make those available for adoption by California law enforcement agencies, regarding the response to cases of missing children and the reporting of missing children. The bill would require the commission to implement a course or courses of instruction for the training of law enforcement officers regarding cases of missing children and the reporting of missing children.

~~Existing law generally regulates parole.~~

~~This bill would express the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation to strengthen California's parole requirements for sex offenders who are convicted of crimes against a minor.~~

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: ~~no~~-yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:
